ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE AND RESPONSIBILITY

At eligellantas.com, we protect the environment by transforming used tires into energy. We are committed to leaving a better world for future generations.

Our products not only carry a seal of quality and warranty but also uphold an environmental commitment. Our partnership with Sistema Verde enables us to achieve responsible environmental outcomes, positioning us as leaders in the tire post-consumer program nationwide.

As of the end of 2023, we have successfully converted over 12,859 tons of tires into energy, thereby preventing the pollution of natural resources.
